

THE CARLISLE PLAN.

J. H. A. Don't Like It. It is in the interest of the Gold Bugs as Against the People.

What Business Has Uncle Sam Going the Security of the Bankers for their Debts to the People.

IT IS DOWN RIGHT ROBBERY.

Editor News—Will you allow me a small space to say a few words on Carlisle's new financial scheme? The first section of that proposed law, requires the repealing of all laws requiring or authorizing the deposit of United States bonds as security for circulation.

Why require this? Simply because it is seen that the issue and sale of bonds is growing more and more unpopular, and the discontent and impatience of the people is becoming ominous. The National debt on which the National banking system is based will be due in a few years, and, with the payment of this debt, the banking system resting thereon would expire by limitation. And it is desired by the banking corporations of the country, to retain at all hazards the control of the issue and volume of currency. The present administration, being merely the obsequious servant of the corporations, is anxious to place securely within their grasp absolute mastery over all industry, commerce and property of the people, before sinking into inglorious and dishonored obscurity. Hence the haste of the people's misrepresentatives, under the lash of their master, Grover Cleveland, to carry out the plan of the Baltimore banker's convention.

What supreme contempt for the will or wishes of the masses! Their opinion was not required. The question was not discussed at all in the press or on the stump before the election, but just as soon as the election is over the bankers meet and issue their orders to the president and his cuckoo, and they vie with one another in their eagerness to obey. O, what utter contempt for the people! Where is the spirit of our fathers? It sleeps; it is not dead; it only sleeps. And woe! to the millions, who have sold and are now selling the sacred rights and liberties of their constituents to the corporations, when that spirit shall awaken!

Second—"Save the Carlisle plan—permit National banks to issue notes to the amount of 50 per centum of their paid up capital, and, when emergencies arise, 25 per centum additional."

Why should the banking corporations be permitted to foist their notes (debts) upon the public for money?

Why should the people be compelled by law to pay the national banker interest for the privilege of using his debts for money? What business has Uncle Sam going the security of the bankers for their debts to the people? Is not the merchant, the miller, the manufacturer, the miner, the farmer or any company or business firm whatever, as much entitled in equity to the privilege of loaning their notes (debts) to the people for money purpose as the national bankers?

For one hundred years it has been the boasted motto of the Democratic party: "Equal rights to all, exclusive privileges to none." Now they are rushing headlong to confer on the national bankers exclusive, special, p. cuniary, most unjust and dangerous privileges. To whom will the bankers owe their notes (debts), it is proposed to allow them to issue and loan to the people at usurious rates of interest? Why to the government, the whole people. Every one of these bank notes issued, will represent at its face value, a debt of the bank to the whole people, in the person of the holder, whoever that person may be. Why, then, should they be compelled by law to go to the banker and pay him usury for what is their own?

O, what wise people Americans are! How intelligent, courageous and independent we are! We would not submit to be fleeced and robbed by kings, monarchs, dukes and lords as do the poor, down-trodden people of the old world. Oh! no, we are a free people! We are! How long will this contemptuous disregard of the wishes and welfare of the people at large continue to be shown by their rulers? Until the people cease to regard themselves as so many sheep to be herded by their political leaders, till the corporations are ready to shear them again.

Passing over the third section, I find this: Fourth—"Suppose a tax of one-half of 1 per centum, payable semi-annually upon the average amount of notes in circulation to defray the expenses of printing notes, official supervision, etc."

This one-half of 1 per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, represents the whole cost to the bankers for the notes they are to receive from the government to loan back to the people at from 10 to 50 per cent. per annum. No wonder the national bankers can so well afford to pay large salaries to the editors of the great city papers, to teach their blind and deluded readers that "The National Banking system is the best banking system the world ever saw." The bankers are to receive their notes at the bare cost of printing them and the ink and paper used, and then, sticking their fists to them, loan them out as money. The banker lives in "luxurious ease and splendid show" on the toll, sweat and life-blood of common folk. And they will continue to dress in soft garments, dwell in beautiful homes, eat sumptuously every day, though tilling not nor spinning until we are intelligent, independent and honest enough to vote for the welfare of our country and our homes, rather than for the corporations and their agents—the politicians of the DEMOREPUBLICAN party.

The fifth section of the Secretary's plan, proposes that the "Secretary of the Treasury shall be authorized to prepare and keep on hand, ready for issue, upon application a reserve of blank national bank notes for each banking association having circulation." Yes, the notes are to be manufactured by the government in large quantities, and kept constantly on hand in the treasury in blank so that, when applied for by the bankers, they can be shipped post-haste to them; and, when they are signed by the president and cashier, they are ready to begin earning dividends for the bankers, Shame! Shame! that the voters of this country will meekly and tamely submit to such flagrant and outrageous injustice and most shameless robbery! It is none the less robbery, though done under the forms of law and is called a "consistent and comprehensive financial scheme."

Coming to section eleventh, I find that "the circulating notes issued by a banking corporation, duly organized under the laws of any State, shall be exempt from taxation under the laws of the United States." Of course! It would never do to make the national banker pay taxes like common mortals! But watch, when that Carlisle bill—Cleveland's bill per Carlisle—reaches a vote, every Populist will vote solidly against it in the House. And when it shall reach the Senate, that gallant band of Populist Senators will stand like a wall of fire against passage. Mark this prediction and let us learn who are our real friends and advocates in the halls of legislation.

Respectfully, J. H. A.

ROSETTA.

Field over from last week.

Mr. Warren Alexander and bride, (Miss Sallie Mitcham) began house-keeping Monday. He has leased land of W. B. Hardin. We extend them our congratulations and good wishes. If Sallie makes as good a wife as pupil she will prove a jewel to Warren.

Miss Angie Sipes while preparing dinner Sunday stumbled over a cat with a bowl of milk in her hands. She was thrown to the ground. In falling her hand was severely strained two of her fingers were thrown out of place.

One of our young gents gets a number of letters from a fair demoiselle in Arkansas. We don't know what it spells, but we do know that he ran behind the door to read last one and the door had a glass front which revealed his smiles, blushes and a pretty bunch of emblematic flowers.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicants, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at A. R. Fisher's Drug store.

Remembering Auntie.

GAS CITY, IND., Dec. 19, 1894.—Mr. J. D. BARNARD, Sir—Inclosed find twenty-five cents for which please send me a ticket in the drawing for the big doll. Send my aunt Auntie Newsum a box of nice candy for the money and write from Ella W. Miller. How is dear old Cloverport getting along? With many good wishes to you, and all of my dear friends, for a merry Christmas, a prosperous New Year, I remain, Yours Truly, ELLA WICK MILLER

IF TAKES YOUR MONEY—only 25 cents to buy a glass vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—but then you get a lasting benefit and a permanent cure of your bilious or sick Headache, Constipation or indigestion, loss of appetite, and all those troubles which follow a disordered liver. The time to treat an inactive liver is before it becomes a disease. If these tiny Pellets were in every day use people would be kept healthy. The germs of disease make their entrance to the system through the liver—your health and well-being depends on the liver. If you suffer from wind and pain in the stomach, giddiness, nervous, disturbed sleep, you get immediate relief from the use of Pleasant Pellets. They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money returned.

Think of the thousands of hopeless cases which must have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, before the proprietor could be willing to say, as they do: "For any case of Catarrh, no matter how bad, which we cannot cure, we'll pay $500 cash."

Teachers' Association.

The 5th Magisterial Association met at Constantine, Dec. 15th, 1894.

The house was called to order by the County Superintendent.

Devotional exercise conducted by Bro. M. V. Lyons.

Music furnished by the choir, consisting of Misses Lillian, Mattie and Pearl McGuffin, Jennie V. Whitworth, Lullie Johnson and Addie Mercer; Mr. Irvin Whitworth and Sidney Hall and Miss Annie Mercer, musician who performed with accuracy and proved their talent.

Welcome address by Sidney Hall which showed his appreciation and spirit in the work he is engaged.

The County Superintendent followed with some pointed remarks on "The need and value of Association," "Why and how teach Geography?" was discussed by Wm. A. Skillman first and some points of interest were left to the members, who eagerly caught them and a spirited discussion arose; led by Messrs. Geo. H. Moorman and Geo. Gray and many thoughts of interest were brought to bear upon the Association.

J. C. Basham introduced the subject "Why and how teach U. S. History," and proved that there are more necessities than one, that should prompt each individual to carefully study his home history, when he had concluded many more points were added of interest by Messrs. Chas. Moorman, S. Hall, Geo. Hall, Wm. Skillman and Geo. Gray.

Music by the choir, after which the Association adjourned for noon to meet at 1 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Music by choir.

"Why and how teach the diacritical marks," by J. C. Tucker, who presented his method and gave the Association a very good talk which they more carefully than has been the custom by the majority of teachers. Many members took an active part in the discussion.

Next subject, "Why cultivate the taste for reading." A well prepared paper on this subject by Miss Amanda Pullen.

DEATH OF JUBEL MEADOR.

He Passes Away at The Ripe Old Age of Ninety-Five.

Died, at the residence of W. H. Pemberton, Rock Vale, Ky., Thursday December 13, 1894, Jubel Meador, in the ninety-fifth year of his age. Uncle Jubel as he was called, was born in Bedford county, Virginia, February 26, 1800.

When about eight years old his parents moved to Kentucky and settled near Harlanburg, Breckenridge county.

He was married to Miss Betsey Hanks about 1820. To this union were born ten children, five sons and five daughters, five of which still survive him. They are Mrs. Elias Parsons, Mrs. Margaret Overton, Mrs. Rhoda Carville, Thos. and Dr. J. W. Meador. In the year 1827 he moved to Indiana, but failing in health returned to Breckenridge county, Ky., where he has resided since with the exception of one year he lived with his son, Dr. J. W. Meador, of Shreve, Ohio county, Ky. Uncle Jubel cast his first vote for President in 1824 when he voted for Andrew Jackson. His wife died on December 10, 1890 after which he married again. His second wife was Mrs. Betsey Harder, widow of William Harder. She died November 5, 1893, after which he became much disheartened and failed rapidly in health.

He was a devoted member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and spent much of his time in his last days reading the Bible.

He was laid to rest in Union Chapel cemetery on the evening of the 14th thereby a long and useful life has ended.

Who Is to Blame?

We complain that those in authority have not the fear of God before their eyes. We lift our hands in holy horror at the public corruption which brings our nation into dishonor before the world. But who is to blame? One political party is ever ready to ascribe all the corruption of the country to its political rival. But this godless disregard of national honor and national interest is confined to no party; neither is it confined to party leaders, but it controls the people on whom the leaders rely for support. Here is the seat of the disease which is gnawing at the vitals of the republic. The man who now refuses to cater to the depraved tastes of the masses, can not, as a rule, be promoted to office. How many men can sit in the halls of legislation, or even on our benches of justice who persistently refuse to influence men's votes by money or inflame their passions and sway their judgment with strong drink? When a man of a high sense of moral honor seeks promotion by the suffrage of his fellow-citizens, he soon learns that he must come down from his "stilted dignity" or be defeated. In the excitement of the canvass he yields to base motives to prevent defeat. He compromises his high sense of honor, deadens his conscience, and sells out his manhood to secure an honorable position. We should not expect one to manifest a high sense of honor in public places as long as we require them to compromise their honor in order to secure such places. The thing is both unreasonable and unjust. As well expect sweet water to flow from a fountain which we have made bitter.

Party spirit is hostile to moral purity. As one becomes filled with the spirit of party, to that extent does he surrender the freedom of a man. He can neither think nor speak impartially. He stifles the convictions of conscience and abouts the shibboleth of party. With him the triumph of party is infinitely dearer than the maintenance of principle. Hence the conflict becomes a struggle, not for principle but for victory. The people are distracted and the nation brought to the verge of ruin over the most trivial matters. The Eastern empire was once shaken to its foundation by parties which differed only about the merits of Charleaters at the amphitheater. This ruinous party spirit was fostered by ignorance. The masses who are controlled at the ballot-box by the basest influences, because they will not be controlled by any other, and who in return control the ballots of our country, as a rule the uncultured part of society. The better class of citizens are not approached with the influences which control the ignorant. Therefore, the remedy is in the correct education of the masses. The emphasis is correctly made; for any kind of education will not accomplish this end. Only as people are truly cultured do they cease to be tools of politicians. Then their intelligence, not their passions, must be addressed. When the masses are thus educated they will refine instead of demoralize our public men. As a remedy then, for the demoralization of all classes, we need a better system of education. We must have a free education if we would have a free people. The children must be educated in just principles, if we would perpetuate a just government. To make this remedy effectual, when the means of education are provided for the ignorant, they should be required to appropriate them, or forfeit their right of suffrage. No man should have a voice in determining the destiny of our nation, who rejects the means of that education which alone can qualify him to act intelligently. A man who has not spirit enough to avail himself of the benefits of an elementary education, when placed within his reach, is not worthy of being a citizen of a free government.

We need to erect a high standard of moral qualification for positions of trust and honor. Those in authority will ever be about what the people require. When ungodliness and moral corruption are at a discount among the people and party spirit can not atone for the darkest crimes, then may we expect more purity in high places; not before. This standard must be erected at the ballot-box, or our liberties will find an untimely grave.
